In Re:

Docket No. 2270

Certain Teed Fiber Cement Siding Litigation

(Judge Thomas P. O'Neil)

WRITTEN OBJECTION TO PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

Now comes Donald Sanders, a member of the above-entitled class action, and hereby expresses my objection to the pro-rated schedule set forth in the tentative settlement.

One of the main reasons I purchased this siding was the fifty (50) year warranty. Under this schedule as I interpret it, siding purchased and installed in 2009 has depreciated 36% of its value. In my opinion, a product sold with a fifty (50) year warranty should not depreciate at such an exaggerated rate.

I feel that this rate is unacceptable and would suggest that someone in authority revisit this pro-rated schedule and make the necessary changes that make it a little more fair to the homeowner!

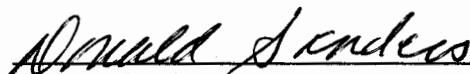

Respectfully Submitted,

Donald Sanders
